

I live in southern california and we have a radio station here 740 a.m. It is a religious station that continues to call other churches cults. Their descriptions of other churches are demeaning.

It crosses the line into Religious Discrimination. We would not think to allow a station demean on the basis of race again and again. Why do we allow this?

Michelle